

WHEREAS, dedication, athleticism and community pride are part of what makes a great athlete, the Granbury Independent School District Board of Trustees is proud to honor Dana Vollmer for her outstanding representation of our school district, the community and her sport at the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens, Greece.

WHEREAS, Dana's courage to overcome adversity is a pillar of strength and something to be set forth as an example to both children and adults around the world, the Granbury ISD is proud to call her one of our own.

WHEREAS, It takes tremendous dedication and hard work for Dana to successfully maintain schoolwork, athletic training and social activities; and,

WHEREAS, Dana's concentration on the joy and skill of her sport rather than just the victory is something that should be honored with pride.

The Granbury ISD is proud to recognize Dana Vollmer for her performance and representation of Granbury at the Athens Games and for realizing her dreams of becoming an Olympic Gold Medallist. We're proud of you and look forward to watching you continue to bring home top honors in everything you do.

---

Charlie Cloud, GISD Board President

---

William Harris, GISD Superintendent